

Do you have blood in your urine/pee?

Ask your doctor, nurse or health worker to check for bladder cancer.

Do it straight away, because finding it early could save your life.

Bladder cancer signs could be:

blood in your urine - even a small bit or just one time

pain or burning when peeing

wanting to go quickly to the toilet or urinating a lot

www.beatbladdercanceraustralia.org.au

Awareness
Information
Education
Treatment
Support

Bladder cancer affects thousands of people of all ages every year.

Visit our website for helpful information, videos, question lists and to join a support group.

www.beatbladdercanceraustralia.org.au

Symptoms →

Diagnosis →

Treatment →

Support →

BEAT Bladder Cancer Australia is a charity increasing awareness and providing support and information to the bladder cancer community.

Follow us on Facebook for all the latest information and support.

BEAT

BLADDER CANCER AUSTRALIA

